Description:

The objective of our system is to allow the user to create resume. The user can use our website to build the resume. There are various of templets available from which user can select and build their own resume. User can also create their own template also. Beside templets our System will have the extensions or feature like Grammarly which will correct the mistakes made in writing using user. It will also help user to write formal English. There will be tools which will provide the user creative ideas to develop an attractive and impact creating resume.
